■ COMPANY PROFILE

Raghav Granites has been in business for over twenty five years in the natural stone industry. Raghav Granites process natural stones that represent market excellence concerning quality, workmanship and customization and invests regularly in production processes and the most advanced technologies. Our stones have beautified number of projects in residential, commercial and landscaping in most of the parts of world.

In 1988 Mr. Ashok Maloo established Raghav Marbles: a small company in the town of Kishangarh, near Jaipur, which specialized in marble products. The small company grew in just a few years, creating a target market in whole India. In 1996 an expansion of marble gang saw was made in kishangarh itself. From 2000 to 2015 the company expanded its production with the energy of younger generation. Raghav Granites started producing finished granite products in North and South India.

“We work hard everyday to make Raghav Granites the most respected and trusted brand in the field of Marbles and Granites”

"We at Raghav Granites continuously works on quality, reliability & affordability of our products. We strive to achieve this through our vision, mission and values."

■ PACKAGING

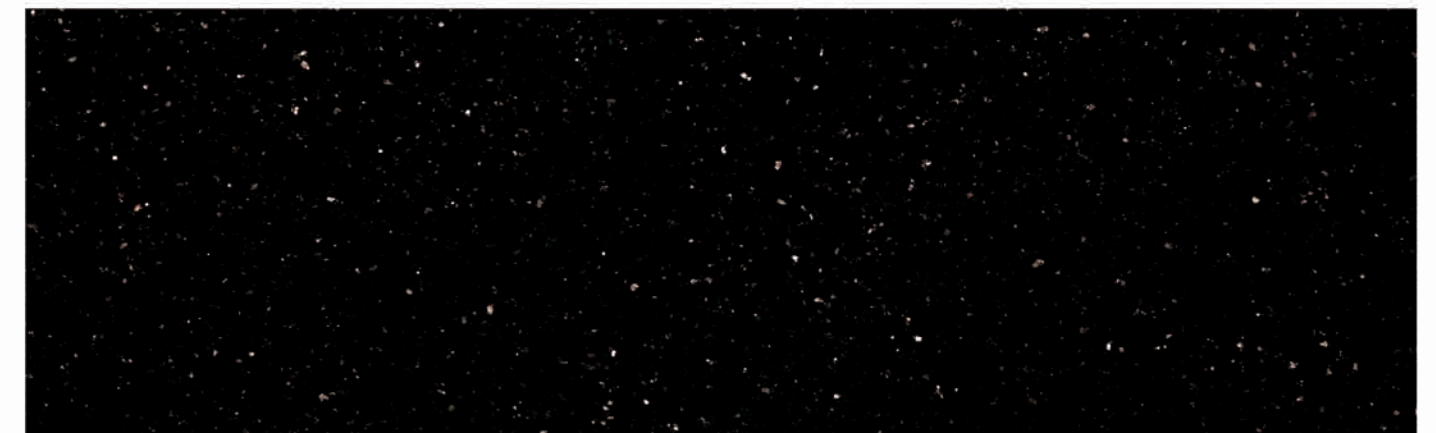

We pack stone tiles directly into the wooden crates but before started packing each wooden crate is first in-lined with foam sheet or thermocol sheet to protect stones against damage. Between the polished surfaces we always put thin polythene sheet to protect the surface from undue scratches.
